RE: UPDATE FOR SNCC 2023 WINNERS' PARTICIPATION IN WORLD COFFEE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Singapore Coffee Association (SCA).

The Singapore Coffee Association would like to inform you on changes regarding the representations of the Singapore National Coffee Championship (SNCC) 2023 winners at the World Coffee Championships.

1. Champions for SNCC 2023 were originally slated to represent Singapore on World Coffee Championships 2024. However, there has been a minor change for the winner of Singapore National Latte Art Championship (SLAC) 2023.

The champion of SLAC 2023 will represent Singapore at the World Latte Art Championship (WLAC) 2023, that will be held in Taipei, Taiwan in November 2023. This decision was made as our winner for SLAC 2023 will be birthed in September 2023.

You may refer to the information listed below for more details:

2023 Taipei World Coffee Championships at 2023 Taiwan International Coffee Show:

Venue: Taipei Nangang Exhibition Centre

Dates: 17th – 20th November 2023

2023 Taipei World Coffee Championships will include World Latte Art Championship (WLAC), World Coffee in Good Spirits Championship (WCIGS), and World Coffee Roasting Championship (WCRC).

2. The remaining champions for 2023 edition of Singapore National Barista Championship (SNBC), Singapore Cup Tasters Championship (SCTC), and Singapore National Brewers Cup (SNBrC) will follow the original plan to be sent for the World Coffee Championships in 2024.

World Barista Championship (WBC) 2024 will take place at the World of Coffee Busan, South Korea (1st – 4th May 2024); World Cup Tasters Championship (WCTC) 2024 & World Brewers Cup (WBrC) 2024 will be held at Specialty Coffee Expo in Chicago, Illinois, United States of America (12th – 14th April 2024).

3. As the World Coffee Events has not yet disclosed the particulars of World Latte Art Championship 2024, the SCA Events Committee shall provide information on SLAC 2024 once WLAC 2024 is announced.
